

Photo by Patricia Radcliffe

Spring Cleanup

Sgt. 1st Class Reginald Rogers, above, Chief Warrant Officer Don Bolden, far right photo, and Deborah Williams each participate in the recent Spring Cleanup activities around Fort Monroe. Rogers is assigned to the TRADOC Public Affairs Office, Bolden is assigned to the Futures Center, and Williams is an employee at Army Community Services. Numerous other employees across the installation also participated in the event, which stressed cleanup of debris, sprucing up flower beds and planting flowers and shrubs.

Photo by Patricia Radcliffe

Photo by Patrick Buffett

A show of pride ...

Photo by Ron Pinkoski

Buildings for the birds

Grady Wesson from the post environmental office assists youths in the Child Development Center with a birdhouse building project on Earth Day, April 22. Also pictured from l-r are: Hannah Redden, Maggie McCann and Caleb Bates.

Clean Sweep Walk

Donald Petrine of the post Civilian Personnel Assistance Center had the honor of becoming the first Clean Sweep Walk participant since the effort began in March. Petrine received a gift certificate from MWR. He spent about an hour cleaning up the area around his office in Building 82.

Photo by Patrick Buffett